 OF THE
S O C I E T Y
 FOR Promoting Religious Knowledge among the Poor.

W H O E V E R believes the Bible to be a revelation from GOD, and that the matter it contains is not only highly worthy of that infinitely great, and blessed Being to deliver, but of the last importance both to the temporal and spiritual interests of mankind, will not want any farther arguments to convince him of the obligations he is under, first to receive it with the greatest reverence, affection, and gratitude, himself; and then to propagate the knowledge and belief of it among others. And, indeed, who that hath tasted the sweetness, and felt the salutary refreshment, of the fountain of life, but must be willing to convey its living waters to others, that those who need the same sacred advantages may drink of the same heavenly streams, be quickened, purified, and comforted, by them, and live for ever.

Those who have made any serious observations upon mankind, cannot be insensible of the deplorable ignorance, that even in this land of light, is to be found among the poorer sort, especially in the country, for want of the proper means of information and knowledge: and that the numbers of those are great, who, notwithstanding the various assistances that have, from time to time, been communicated for their instruction and improvement, yet very much want, in this instance, the farther aids of Christian piety and benevolence.

Animated, they trust, in some degree, by these motives, and to remove, as far as they can, these unhappy disadvantages, which numbers of our poor labour under; many persons have entered into a Society and Subscription to distribute the sacred Scriptures, and other good books, amongst them, as one of the most effectual methods, in their apprehension, under the blessing of GOD, to bring them acquainted with the truth as it is in JESUS, and render them wise to salvation.

As hereby many necessitous families, who are unable to purchase these helps themselves, will be kindly supplied with them by the bounty of others; so it will not be the least part of the blessing, that the rising generation among them will be furnished with such books as are best suited to their tender years: by means of which it is to be hoped, that under the divine influence, the tendencies of corrupt nature may receive a timely check; and the powerful influence of vicious examples, in these sinful times, be more effectually guarded against; their future perversion from the principles of the Protestant religion, to the errors and corruptions of Popery, be happily prevented; and their precious souls be early seasoned with a lasting tincture of piety and virtue. And if such are esteemed, and indeed with good reason, their generous benefactors, who kindly assist them in providing food and raiment for their bodies ; that friendship surely cannot be less valuable, which relates to their precious and immortal souls, and directs them in the way to everlasting blessedness and glory.

As these considerations will without doubt recommend the attempt of the ministers and gentlemen who have entered into this design to the approbation of all good men ; so it is to be hoped (especially as it is wholly void of all party views) that it will engage others of every Christian denomination among us, who truly fear GOD, love the protestant religion and liberties, and wish well to immortal souls ; to countenance, encourage, and promote it.

RULES of the SOCIETY

For Promoting RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE among the Poor.

I. THE design of this society being to promote Religious Knowledge among the Poor, by giving them Bibles, Testaments, and other good books, where most needed and likely to be improved ; it is agreed that the Society shall be supported by an annual subscription of the members, together with the donations and legacies of all who are disposed to contribute towards it.

II. That no member shall subscribe less than a guinea ; that every subscriber pay (at least) one guinea at the time of his or her entrance as a present for the use of the Society ; that every subscriber of one guinea be entitled to a nomination of books in his or or her turn, of forty shillings value ; that a subscriber of two guineas be entitled to a nomination of four pounds value ; and that a subscriber of a larger sum be entitled to a nomination of such value as is in that proportion.

III. That the society shall meet the first Wednesday in every month, at Founders'-Hall, in Lothbury, (or such other place as the society shall appoint,) at seven o'clock during the summer half-year, and at six during the winter ; that the number of seven be judged sufficient a quarter of an hour after the said time, and the number of three at half an hour after, to proceed to business ; that the meetings in January, April, July, and October, be deemed quarterly ; that no person become a member without being proposed at one meeting, in order to his or her being admitted the next ; that every person, making a present of twenty pounds to the society, be, upon payment of the money, deemed a member for life, and entitled to a parcel of books of forty shillings value in the usual rotation, and so in proportion for any larger sum ; that every member be desired to attend the meetings of the society ; that before every quarterly meeting, printed summonses be sent to all residing within the bills of mortality ; and that the rules of the society be read at every quarterly meeting ; and the letters, &c. at the other monthly meetings.

IV. That a chairman shall be chosen at every meeting ; that he be a minister and a layman alternately ; that every meeting be opened with prayer ; that when a minister is present he be desired to do it ; and that each of the first five persons present at those meetings of the society that are not quarterly, be entitled to one of the Society's large Bibles, provided such person attends before business begins.

V. That a Treasurer, Bookseller, Secretary, and Collector, shall be annually chosen the first Wednesday in January; (notice thereof to be given in the summonses for such quarterly meeting;) that the Treasurer, Treasurer, Secretary, and Collector, be members of the society ; and that a committee be appointed annually to audit the Treasurer's accounts and report them to the society.

VI. That books shall be constantly provided wherein to insert the names of the subscribers, the sums subscribed, an account how the money is from time to time applied, the books purchased and disposed of, the letters received, and all other matters relating to the society.

VII. That all money, received by the Secretary, Collector, or any other member, for the use of the society, shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer, by him to be disbursed in their service ; and that the Secretary take minutes of all transactions at the several meetings, which minutes he shall read before the chairman leaves the chair.

VIII. That there shall be an annual sermon preached for the benefit of this charity, at what time, in what place, and by what minister, the society shall think proper ; that the members dine together the day the said sermon is preached ; that eight or more stewards be annually appointed for that purpose ; and that the stewards for the time being be the committee for auditing the treasurer's accounts for the current year.

IX. That no book shall be received as a gift, be purchased to be given away, or, being already approved of, be rejected and cast out of the society ; unless with the unanimous consent of the members at a second quarterly meeting, after having been first proposed at a former ; and that, in the printed summonses for such second quarterly meeting, the proposal for the reception, purchase, or rejection, of the said book ; be expressly mentioned.

X. That ten or more nominations shall be distributed monthly to the several members in the order they stand on the list ; that it is expected of every member, being in arrears the whole annual subscription, that he pays the same before he receives the nomination.

nation he may become entitled to in rotation; that the following notice shall be sent to every one entitled to a nomination, viz. A parcel of Books will be at your disposal that evening, which it is expected you claim in person, or by written order, within four months; the written order to be sent to the society, or their Secretary, otherwise, the nomination will lapse to the society; and that a subscriber in the country or foreign parts may empower a member to receive his books as often as allotted, without further notice.

- XI. That the usual paper with the society's title, shall be printed and pasted within the cover of all their bound books; that the bookseller do deliver the several nominations upon a proper warrant under the Treasurer's hand being produced; that the warrant shall be to — or bearer; and that a person having received the Treasurer's warrant, and neglecting to demand the books within four months from the date thereof; do forfeit the nomination to the society; (this to be noted at the bottom of the warrant.)
- XII. That the carriage of the several nominations sent into the country from the bookseller shall be defrayed by the society; and that an intimation be sent with them, that it is expected an acknowledgement of their having been received shall be transmitted to the secretary to be laid before the society.
- XIII. That an account of the society, containing a suitable preface, the rules, a list of the subscribers, a state of its accounts, a proper Form for a donation by will, extracts of letters, and the names, numbers, and prices, of the books given away, shall be annually printed in quarto; and that the society's accounts be stated from Midsummer to Midsummer annually, and be audited previous to printing.
- XIV. That whatever be thought proper for the further conducting and carrying on this charity, shall be determined by the majority at the monthly meetings; and that the transactions of the said meetings be read at the next quarterly one.

The proper Form for a Donation to the Society, by Will.

ITEM, I A. B. do hereby give and bequeath the Sum of unto the Treasurer and Secretary for the Time being, of a voluntary Society commonly called or known by the Name of The Society for promoting Religious Knowledge among the Poor, (which Society now usually meet, or did lately meet, at Founders-Hall, in London,) the same to be paid within Months next after my Decease, out of my personal Estate, and to be applied to the Uses and Purposes of that Society.

N. B. Those Gentlemen or Ladies, who are disposed to bequeath any Sum or Sums to this Society, are desired to be very particular in expressing the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE, there being another Society of the same Nature, called the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE: and, though a Donation to either Society may answer very valuable Purposes, yet it may not intirely comport with the Design of the Testator.

From some of the Ministers and Others, in the Country and foreign Parts, who have received Books from the Society.

Brockenhurst, near Lyndhurst, New Forest, Hants. Rev. STEPHEN GOULDEN.
Seeing, by the rules of your society, it is customary, and supposing it will be expected, I hereby inform you, that I received from your hands, per favour of the pious Mr. Howard, the honourable Society's donation of books for the benefit of the poor. To him, (Esq. Howard,) yourself, and all the generous gentlemen of the noble Society, I return my most grateful acknowledgements; and am desired, through the channel of my pen, to send the humble thanks of the poor receivers, who gladly and eagerly fetched the books away, as soon as they heard they were lodged in my hands, and knew the design of the donors; and so numerous were the petitioners for good books, especially bibles and hymn books, that, after I had disposed of the gentlemens donation, I gave away many of my own books to satisfy their requests, and many poor beggars, after all, were sent empty away. This I declare was matter of grief to me, and I could only tell them, that, if it was ever put in my power again, I would endeavour to remember those that now came too late.

I sincerely wish, and ardently pray that those, who have received the books, may be as zealous and diligent in perusing them, as they were eager and pressing to obtain them; and may so carefully imbibe the divine doctrines and sacred truths therein contained, as to bring forth suitable fruits in their lives and conversations, that their precious souls may have the benefit and comfort, the Society their thanks and prayers, and God all the glory and praise.

I have not as yet had time to go round in the neighbourhood to enquire particularly what use has been made of the books, or how much the readers have profited by them; but have been told of one little girl that makes a very swift progress in learning Dr. Watts's Songs for Children by heart, and indeed the doctor's doctor's thoughts are so natural, and his language so well adapted to children, in that little (but valuable) book, that their attention is so engaged and their hearts so delighted, that they can hardly avoid remembering the lessons they read: And, was I ever to have the opportunity again (which is a favour too great to expect,) I would have a great many more of those delightful and profitable little books, and the gentlemen of the Society may be well assured that they should be distributed with the greatest endeavour and desire of doing good to the souls of the receivers. Dated March 8, 1782.

Dirham, Gloucestershire. Rev. PETER GRAND. Sir, I have received the spiritual bread, I mean the bibles, &c. which you sent me last. As soon as God is pleased to restore me to my health, which has for some time been much impaired, I will distribute the Society's gift among those of the poorer sort of my people here who are likely to make a proper use of it. Mean while, I heartily pray that God may still continue to bless the pious designs of so worthy an institution. Dated Feb. 7, 1781.

Hull. A. HOWARD. Mrs. Howard desires to acquaint the Society that she has received yesterday their donation of books with pleasure, as it is hoped good may (through a divine blessing) arise from their distribution, which will be among the ignorant and poor, residing a good deal at Sutton, a country village, where an opportunity of disposing of them to the needy and ignorant will not be wanting. I thought those books more particularly adapted to the cases of secure, careless, and unconcerned, souls, as Baxter, Shower, Reynolds, Alleine, would be, probably, in the hands of God, most useful, and propose the distributing of Bibles and Scudder's Daily Walk to the awakened, to direct and guide them on their way, supposing to such they might be likely to be most useful; do much approve of the Society's attention to the ignorant poor; hope the Lord will farther own and bless their endeavours to promote godliness according to knowledge among them, by the information of their judgement, as well as raising their affections, and wish them abundant success, and thankfully acknowledge the favours received. Dated Jan. 19, 1782.
